The African Programme on Rethinking Development Economics (APORDE), in association with the Centre for Competition, Regulation and Economic Development (CCRED) has the pleasure to invite you to the following Evening Seminar:

INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL FLOWS AND FINANCIAL CRISES

JOSÉ GABRIEL PALMA

Date: Thursday, 8 September 2016

Time: From 18h30 (Refreshments from 18:00)

Venue: CCRED, 2nd Floor 5 Sturdee Avenue Rosebank

RSVP by email: infoccred@uj.ac.za to confirm attendance.

TOPIC: INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL FLOWS AND FINANCIAL CRISES

The lecture will look at the trend of liberalisation of financial markets over the past two decades and their impact, including some of the factors that led to the global financial crisis. It will also cover the growth in financialisation and the challenges that it creates for economic growth.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

José Gabriel Palma is currently a Senior Lecturer in the Faculty of Economics, Cambridge University. He has a D. Phil in Economics from Oxford University, a PHD from Cambridge University (by incorporation) and a D. Phil in Political Science from Sussex University. He worked during the Government of Salvador Allende in the nationalisation of the copper industry, and after his graduate work in the UK he worked as a lecturer at the universities of London, Sussex, Oxford and Cambridge. He has published articles and books dealing with the economics of developing countries, with a strong focus on Latin America and Asia. He has also written extensively on inequality, financial liberalisation and financial crises, industrial policy, de-industrialisation, the history of ideas in development economics and politics, and Latin American economic history.

About the APORDE programme: APORDE is a two-week high-level annual seminar that brings together academics, policy-makers and civil society representatives to investigate economic development options. It is aimed at building capacity in the South, particularly in Africa and founded on the need to broaden perspectives on development thinking and policymaking.
